

National Eggs Benedict Day

Posted on April 11, 2015 by TJ Kendzora in Week's Recommendations // 0 Comments

It's time to celebrate the delicious Benedicts that help us wake up in the morning, and no we are not talking about Benedict Cumberbatch. National Eggs Benedict Day is April 16th and we've compiled a list of some of the best breakfast digs in San Diego that will have every benny lover rejoicing in morning time!

Tucked away on Cass Street in Pacific Beach, Fig Tree Café is ready to serve you bright and early on April 16th. With locations in Hillcrest, Pacific Beach, and Liberty Station, this California eatery has 7 varieties of bennies to choose from. Classic options include Traditional and California Bennies with Canadian Bacon and Turkey. Have a more refined palette? The Atlantic Lox Bennie and the Braised Angus Beef Short Rib Bennies are sure to impress.

Le Parfait Paris, located on G Street between 5th and 6th, is the Gaslamp's newest go-to café for Parisian morning treats and customizable breakfast bennies. Even the pickiest of eaters will find an eggs benedict they enjoy with options of chicken, bacon, roast beef and salami as well as gluten free and vegetarian. Embrace the Francophile in you and swap out the english muffin for a baguette or croissant!

Want to celebrate with breakfast for dinner? Brian's 24, Gaslamp's only 24-hour restaurant, is ready feed your eggs benedict cravings morning, day and night. Brian's takes this comfort food to a whole new level with options, such as Corned Beef Hash, Country, Salmon Hash and Krab Cake, so good you'll be wishing every meal came draped in creamy hollandaise sauce.

Wake up and enjoy this breakfast classic with these eggcellent San Diego eateries

